Christmas and New Year Edition

CHAIR'S CHAT!

Hello to all our members. I hope you are all well, and getting ready for Christmas. The shops are full of gifts and a lot of tempting foods to make us spend our money.

You may find a difference with the delivery of the newsletters this month as we have been having a revamp. If you are a person who delivers the newsletters, we have tried to make your deliveries more compact and hopefully easier on the feet. Please let us know if you have any problems.

In October we had our first Bingo afternoon at the Springhead Golf Club. This was a great success and we hope to have another in the new year. Watch this space.

On Saturday 6th December we are having another one of our social evenings at St Andrew's Memorial Hall - 7pm until 10pm. There will be entertainment from Rob who has been to entertain us before. Tickets available at £5. Our December meeting will be our Christmas afternoon where there will be music, singing, games and mince pies with your Tea/Coffee. Hopefully we will have some poems and stories to read out at this meeting, so put pen to paper and see what you can produce. There will be a money prize for the best one!

This year we are decorating a Christmas tree which will be on display at the Beverley Minster Christmas Tree Festival from December 5th - 14th. If you have got a space in your diary, why not go and have a look at all the lovely trees on show, it is quite a display.

I would like to thank all the committee, the group leaders and all the members who give their time to make our AWAKE u3a such a success. I hope that you all have a lovely Christmas and a healthy New Year. Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year to you all.

Sue

Newsletter Distribution – Help needed!

We are grateful to all our members who hand deliver our quarterly newsletter in the HU10 and HU5 postcode areas. However, we are always on the lookout for new members willing to help in this respect. It would involve delivering no more than 10 newsletters in a small geographic area. If you are able to help, please contact Mel Woods via:

https://awake.u3asite.uk/u3a-contact-form/?contact_id=10092

All groups continue to be active and details can be found on our website, when you Google 'awake u3a'. Several new groups are in the offing and more details will follow in the next Newsletter. There is the possibility for anyone interested in Italian to join the Swanland group. Click on the following link for more details.
<https://www.swanlandu3a.org.uk/x-italysh.html>

We have also had the offer of a group to look at mindfulness meditation so let Chris Watson know if you might be interested. Finally, you will have had an e-mail round from Sue about the possibility of restarting the Photography group, so please let her know if you are interested. (see also page 6)

Once we gauge the interest levels in any of the suggestions, we can have a meeting of interested members to begin the set-up of the group. For more information contact Chris via https://awake.u3asite.uk/u3a-contact-form/?contact_id=10085

I know it may be just a little bit early but I hope you all have a very Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year. Take care. Chris.

here are the reports from all our interest groups.....

Book Groups

We have read two very good books in the last few months. Both are a very light read but very enjoyable. 'The Woman with all the Answers' by Linda Green makes us think about using ALEXA, as the ALEXA in this book turns out to be Pauline, a 65-year-old former voice-over artist from Halifax who oversees a dysfunctional family going through a few problems!!!! The second book is 'Meet Me at Rainbow Corner' by Celia Imrie. A fictional story with a few twists but based on experiences during WW2. Both worth a read. The Groups meet once a month. For more information, please follow the link below and send an email by clicking on the Leader's name.

Play Reading

This group meets on the 4th Wednesday of the month at 2pm. Our last reading, over two sessions, was Alan Ayckbourn's, Improbable Fiction. Described as 'a zany, imaginative comedy with affectionate satire', it involves aspiring members of the Pendon Writers' Circle. Led by Arnold, an ineffectual, but enthusiastic chairman, who hosts the meetings in his home, most of this diverse group is struggling with writers' block. Arnold suggests that they get out of the rut by collaborating on a piece of writing, but it is received without enthusiasm. As the meeting closes, Arnold begins clearing up when there is a clap of thunder and a black-out. Then the zany part starts with the story that would have been written, unfolding before his eyes. It required a lot of imagination to keep with the plot, but was enjoyable to read.

Our next meeting is on Wednesday, 26th November.

A Christmas Poem

Mistletoe

Sitting under the mistletoe
(Pale-green, fairy mistletoe),
One last candle burning low,
All the sleepy dancers gone,
Just one candle burning on,
Shadows lurking everywhere:
Someone came, and kissed me there.

Tired I was; my head would go
Nodding under the mistletoe
(Pale-green, fairy mistletoe),
No footsteps came, no voice, but only,
Just as I sat there, sleepy, lonely,
Stooped in the still and shadowy air
Lips unseen—and kissed me there.
